English Abstract

In accordance with the present invention, a store controller (10) determines a monetary value, such as an amount of spare change due to a customer. The store controller also selects a ticket record (30) that includes a set of ticket numbers. Subsequently, the store controller purchases at least one lottery ticket based on the monetary value and the set of ticket numbers. The store controller then outputs the information to a POS terminal (14), which prints a fractional lottery ticket redeemable for a portion of the lottery ticket's prize. The fractional lottery ticket (34) includes the ticket numbers and a fractional lottery ticket value that is based on the monetary value. The fractional lottery ticket value may be, for example, equal to the monetary value, or may be the monetary rounded to the nearest nickel. After a drawing date for the lottery ticket, the customer redeems the fractional lottery ticket, typically at a POS terminal, if a prize is due.

Cette invention concerne une unite de commande et de stockage qui va determiner une valeur monetaire, telle que la quantite de monnaie due a un client. L'unite de commande et de stockage va eggalement selectionner une liste de billets qui comprend un ensemble de numeros de billets. L'unite de commande et de stockage va ensuite acheter au moins un billet de loterie en fonction de la valeur monetaire et de l'ensemble de numeros de billets. Cette meme unite de commande et de stockage envoie ensuite des informations a un terminal de point de vente, lequel va imprimer un billet de loterie fractionnel qui peut etre converti en especes pour une partie du prix gagne avec ce billet de loterie. Le billet de loterie fractionnel comporte les numeros du billet ainsi qu'une valeur du billet de loterie fractionnel qui est fonction de la valeur monetaire. La valeur du billet de loterie fractionnel peut par exemple etre egale a la valeur monetaire, ou peut encore etre ladite valeur monetaire arrondie a la valeur de la piece de monnaie la plus proche. Apres la date de tirage du billet de loterie, le client se rend a un terminal de point de vente afin d'y convertir en especes son billet de loterie fractionnel dans le cas ou il a gagne un prix. Le terminal de point de vente va communiquer a l'unite de commande et de stockage les numeros du billet ainsi que la valeur du billet de loterie fractionnel. En fonction des informations recues, l'unité de commande et de stockage va déterminer la valeur du prix du billet de loterie correspondant. Le client va à son tour recevoir une partie de la valeur du prix en fonction de la valeur du billet de loterie fractionnel.
